Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Hazel, South Dakota, is celebrating its 100th birthday in July; and,

WHEREAS, This community is just one member short of having 100 citizens to help celebrate this great occasion; and,

WHEREAS, Hazel's celebration will kick off with a fun run, and end with a fireworks display; and,

WHEREAS, Hazel was established in March 1888, and named after the first child of Martin Bowley, who owned the land the town was built on; and,

WHEREAS, Hazel claims to be the smallest town in South Dakota that is not a county seat to have a museum—the Hazel Historical House; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper, as Governor, to make note of this special occasion in this community's history:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 1 through 3, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Eighth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
